25 The Rev. HENDERSON JUDD, having accepted the call to the Rectorship of St. Peter's (Episcopal) Church, there will be regular services and 64 P. M.

We are pleased to learn the Vestry have purchased the valuable property of CHAS. HENKING, Esq., thus securing a comfortable and tasty home for their Rector.

Several of our churches have, the past year, shown the interest they feel in the comfort and well being of their ministers, in this commendable way; thus releasing them from those corroding cares, which retard their usefulness in this high and holy calling. To the members of other churches, we say, "Go and do thou likewise."

Usual Christmas services at St. Peters Episcopal Church Monday evening (Christmas Eve.) at 14 o'clock. On Christmas day at 10 its traditional pleasures. Parents are Marked Their Old Stock Sabbath Schools. All are invited to them for the Holiday presents, that attend.

Thos. Williams, Guardian of the miner children of Jeseph Williams deceased will find it to his advantage to call at the Claim Office of Major Clark, Jr. at an early date. Also Jesse Bierd formerly of Co. H. 2d W. Va. Infty. and William Hurd formerly Co. A. 13th W. Va. Infty.

WHATTHE RELIGIOUS PRESS SAYS .-We copy the following extracts from long editorial notices in various religious papers complimentary to the Alleghanians, Vocalists and Bell Players, who returned from their European Tour a few weeks since, all classes would find it useful. Mr. and are to appear in this city, at TRENTHART is agent for the sale of ALESTINE'S Hall, on Christmas Evenings, Monday and Tuesday December 24th and 25th. Their concerts are very popular, and always attended by our best citizens, including the clergy of all denominations.

The Christian World, London, England, January, 1866, says,-"No description could convey an adequate great musical feast." The Congregationalist, (Scotland,) says,-"They have not only astonished, but won the admiration of all our levers of soul stirring music." The Rev. Mr. Spurgeon says,-"No human tongue could discourse more mellifluous music."

sing music of the heart." The Christian Advocate says,-"They are ministers of good, speaking to the great heart of humanity in sooths ing strains of beauty." The London (England) Daily Times, whose correct musical criticisms are copied over the whole continent of Europe, says of them:-

"No such performance on hand-bells has been heard in London within our memory. To say that the music produced by these extraordinary bellringers is sweet, as to mention its smallest merit. It is something more than sweet. It is not only melodious, but pure, tender, sympathetic, and expressive to a degree to which no written description can do adequate justice."

The Festival, for the benefit of the Sabbath School, connected with the Presbyterian Church, occurred Thursday and Friday evenings last, at Aleshire's Hall. A Goodly number attended, and everything passed off pleasantly. Oysters, coffee, cake, &c., disappeared at an alarming rate.

Friday evening was deveted, more especially, to the entertainment of the Sabbath school children, who were out in full force, and enjoyed the occasion, as only children can.
